STRATEGY WON OUT.

But Canine Friends of Hetty Picketed Station-House Until He Was Bailed.

Two intelligent dogs were witnesses to the kindly nature of Joseph Hetty, a very black citizen, who was to-day arrested in Lee Avenue Court, technically charged with vagrancy. The dog had made a long faithful fight to keep Hetty out of the hands of the police, and only a stratagem requiring three policemen landed Hetty in the Vernon avenue station.

Hetty is a hostler at William Eckart's stables, No. 16 Charles place, Williamsburg, and by association has won the affection of the two dogs, a handsome coach dog and an ugly, under-shot bulldog of forbidding appearance, but good natured when not provoked. When Hetty was sent for a stroll through Williamsburg last night his two canine friends walked modestly by his side.

The colored man looked so hard on hard-boiled drinks that he grew weary, and at midnight he was found sleeping. He was taken to the front steps of the Citizens Trust Company Building, at Broadway and Sumner avenue. Janitor Jones, who made the discovery and was about to pay the smoke off the stove, was warned by a low duet given that his stage was "dogged" also. Jones side-stepped hastily at the sight of white teeth and set out for a cop.

Growled Defiance to Police. Policeman Martin Short, of the Vernon avenue station, came up swinging his nightstick and a dog against a solid phalanx of glowing, growling canines. Short feebly tried to deceive the intelligent animals by addressing them as "Nice dogs!" but there was nothing doing. Hetty continued to snore and a crowd of grinning Williamsburgers was gathered, so Short sent a call and the wagon came with Cunningham and Gallagher.

The trio of policemen had nightsticks drawn and were advancing on the dogs. The crowd had swelled to nearly a thousand persons. In the front rank a well-dressed woman squeaked: "Don't you dare strike those dogs!" and the cops knew they would have to use cunning against animal devotion.

Baited Dogs with Wood. Cunningham and Gallagher stuck out their sticks, on which the dogs fixed their teeth, and, clinging to the clubs, were dragged away long enough for Short to throw the still snoring Hetty into the wagon. The two other cops jumped in after and the driver whipped up for the station. The two dogs followed at the wheels.

They were sniffling hungrily at the station-house door when the wagon arrived. It took another quick move to handle Hetty into the house, all reserves acting as honorary pall-bearers. For the next few hours the dogs picked the outside of the station, looking greedily at the legs of each cop who came out.

The Vernon avenue force didn't feel easy until Everyman Eckart came and bailed out Hetty. Then the dogs calmly withdrew, following the negro. To-day Magistrate Higginbotham endorsed the story so well he let Hetty go on suspended sentence.

BENEFIT ADDS $175 TO BABIES' FUND

Fred Erbe's Annual Contribution to the Charity Reached that Sum This Year.

The annual benefit tendered The Evening World Sick Babies' Fund by Fred Erbe at his beautiful North Beach Casino occurred last Friday, July 20, and scored a tremendous artistic and financial success. This is the eleventh year that generous Mr. Erbe has collected the finest available vaudeville talent of the country at his Casino in aid of the Evening World fund. Last Friday's receipts amounted to $175, all of which Mr. W. H. Stanley, Mr. Erbe's manager, has turned over to the fund. Among the prominent artists who appeared at this year's North Beach Casino benefit were:

Harry Thompson, "The Mayor of the Bowery"; Miss Martha Weiner, Little "Honey"; Martin, Mrs. Beattie Stanley, "Wood and English"; Ruth and Percy Rogers, Dainty Doty Dale and company, Mr. and Mrs. Madeirosky, the Russian dancers; the La Salle Trio, Little Lulu Stanley; Baby Toots, George W. Reynolds, Baby Baker, the Sullivan Sisters, Miss Frances Littau, L. L. Gorman, the man with the funny whistle; Milton Lee, J. F. McCabe, Buskirk, the famous tenor; Al Tanner, Martin Ridge-way and Gussie Vivian.

To Mr. Erbe and Mr. Stanley is due the gratitude of hundreds of sick and suffering children to whom the generous sum of money will give grand opportunities of renewed health and happiness. The following subscriptions to the Sick Babies' Fund have been received by The Evening World:

More Babies Go to Sea Breeze On Tax Paid by the Bachelors

ADVICE TO GIRLS.

What are bachelors for, any way? Doing kind things for people, isn't that about all?

Asen't they the men who send you big boxes of candy and take you out for dinners and suppers, to roof gardens and for cool drives in the park these hot evenings?

Why wouldn't they do kind things for babies?

Tell them they should.

Collect the bachelor's tax from every nice man you know and send it to—

THE CASHIER,
New York Evening World.

ADVICE TO BACHELORS.

Why not launch a few babies and mothers on the ocean of joy? Pay the Bachelor's Tax!

It means health and happiness to the wives and babies of some poor men.

Frank heaven, you haven't a wife and child suffering from heat and sickness.

Show your gratitude by mailing $5 to—

Suffering Infants Benefited by Fund Contributed by Generous Unmarried Men.

BY RUTH EARLE.

Two more babies have been chosen as beneficiaries of The Evening World's Bachelor Tax. They are two little girls—Katherine Rayner, one year old, and Margaret Harvey, aged eight months. The fund has the money to send two more babies and their mothers to Sea Breeze, but they have not yet been singled out of the long list of waiting applicants.

Since we can't send all the sick babies who need to go, we want to send that those suffering the most.

There's the difficulty with a young charitable enterprise like this. Its efficiency is restricted by lack of funds. The bachelors ought to remit more readily. So might all the other folks in New York.

Should See for Themselves. If a few comfortable, well-to-do citizens of this town could spare the time to make a trip to the east side recreation pier on Evening World excursion days, the Sick Babies' Fund would grow to a great endowment fund for the perpetuation of such a charity.

If some persons of a still more enterprising and investigating turn of mind would make the tenement rounds with one of our free doctors, the work would be eternally perpetuated.

And it half the bachelors in this city witnessed the departure of a party of babies and mothers for Sea Breeze there would be such an epidemic of $5 contributions that no babies would be left in New York to send away for vacations.

People without self-contributions through ignorance of conditions. Those who are able to give have no conception of the suffering their mite can relieve.

That is the reason our fund for sick babies and the Bachelor Tax fund do not grow with the rapidity that they otherwise might. People don't realize the economic value of money wisely applied to the purchase of health and happiness for the suffering poor. And unless they have slummed of their-

POLAR TRIP FROM CONEY.

Pearl's Arctic Journey is Here Vividly Reproduced.

Pearl's famous Polar expedition is faithfully reproduced at the North Pole Building on Surf Avenue, Coney Island. The perils of Arctic voyaging and the realities of the frozen north are vividly depicted in realistic and elaborate scenic effects.

So popular has the performance become that there is often a standing room only in the big edifice. The price has been reduced to 10 cents for adults and five cents for children. In connection with the North Pole show, but in a separate auditorium, a descriptive lecture and exact replica of the San Francisco earthquake are given.

"The North Pole" is scoring one of the hits of the Coney season.

BRADY PLANS NEW THEATRE.

Play-House May Be Built on Site of Old Manhattan.

Unless future plans of the McAdoo Tunnel Company interfere, William A. Brady will have a new play-house on the site of the present Manhattan Theatre.

Mr. Brady holds a lease of the Manhattan Theatre until such time as its removal is necessitated by the Pennsylvania Terminal improvements are given.

The new theatre, if built, will be the new home of Grace George and Mr. Brady's other plays. The theatre, erected, will have an entrance from the Pennsylvania subway station.

LORD CHARLES QUILTS MEDITERRANEAN FLEET.

Vice-Admiral Is Dissatisfied with His Post and Will Resign Shortly.

LONDON, July 27.—Vice-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford is about to resign the command of the Mediterranean fleet. Rear-Admiral Sir Assheton Curzon Rowe will probably succeed him. Lord Beresford's resignation is reported to be due to his disapproval of the recent policy of the Admiralty, which, among other things, reduced the importance of the Mediterranean fleet.

Do it Now! Don't Wait Until It's Too Late!

KEEP your body clean!

Most people are very neat and clean in their outward appearance, but how about the inside?

Are you clean inside?

And if not, how can you face the world with clean thoughts, clear intelligence, a fair, just, bright mind and get your full share of capacity for work and enjoyment?

Neglect of exercise, rich over-feeding and carelessness about stools, often leave the delicate internal mechanism in a nasty mess.

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time. That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise, take Cascarets, the small, fragrant, harmless little vegetable tablets, that "act like exercise" on your bowels, and gently but powerfully clean out and disinfect the whole digestive canal.

A Cascaret every night before going to bed will "work while you sleep" and make you "feel fine in the morning."

If you have been neglecting yourself for some time, take a Cascaret night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "cathartic habit."

Cascarets are sold by all druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c. The 10c size trial box is a neat fit for the vest pocket or lady's purse.

Be sure to get the genuine, with the "long-tailed C" on the box and the letters "CCC" on each tablet. They are never sold in bulk.

It's a fine tale this little bird tells—

Our stock of men's suits has just had a general overhauling.

The $15 tables show hundreds of mixtures, outtings and serges that were $2, $3 or $5 more, and at all the higher prices there are quantities of suits which now offer material savings.

All the youths' suits of all kinds, sizes 32 to 35 chest, are marked down, too.

$10; and they were from $14 up.

All the boys' long trouser suits, sizes 29 to 31 chest. $8 now, instead of from $13 up.

SIEGEL COOPER

NEW YORK

STORE CLOSED

SATURDAY at 1 o'clock

WE turn the key on business at 1 o'clock, but it will be a lively morning. Several things happen in the personal-wear line that will keep us very busy, but there will be other centers of attraction here besides the clothing, women's wear and shoe sections.

One of the others will be the Candy Store. Another will be the Sporting Goods Store, where the golfer, the tennis-player, the fisherman and the autoist get their over-Sunday supplies—and get them RIGHT.

And the Grocery Store never sees a dull minute, anyway. But it all stops at 1 o'clock—except the telephone service. That NEVER stops, day or night.

Men's Trousers at $1.50

Made to Sell at from $3 to $4.

HERE'S a great finish to the greatest sale ever of men's trousers ever held in this store—and that means in New York.

When the store closed last night there were about 500 pairs left of the trousers we have been making our greatest sale on, at $2. To these we have added a special purchase of 700 pairs, in all allowing you a choice tomorrow of about 1,200 pairs.

In no other store could you buy trousers that are as good in quality, style and general finish for less than $3 to $4.

Fabrics include worsteds in stripes and overplaids; chevions in herringbone and neat plain effects; outing trousers in homespun and flannels, and trousers in black thibet.

Every waist measure from 30 to 40; all lengths. Get here early if you want the best choice. Sale begins promptly at 8.30.

Summer Dresses for 75c

YOU may say—if you don't know The Big Store—"What kind of a dress can any one expect to get for 75c?"

Not much, perhaps, as a usual thing, or at the usual store. But this is not the usual store, and this offer is distinctly unusual, even for us. So you may expect a good deal for your 75c, to-morrow morning.

You may expect in actual VALUE dresses that you could not make yourself for less than $2 in money plus two days of time and could not buy in any store outside this store under $1.25 at the less—many of them for nothing less than $1.95.

Materials are white and polka-dot lawn, with embroidery trimmings; also tan lawn in a smart, tailor style. Just 300 for a half-day's sell—75c

ON Summer Saturdays the Grocery Store has to do the business of the busiest day of the week in a half day. That it does this without hurry, without keeping you waiting and without making mistakes is good evidence for the capacity and perfection of its organization and equipment.

Here's a little half-day list of specials. Safe qualities and prices that leave you a good deal of loose change that you wouldn't have if you bought anywhere else.
